

3 Stages of Alzheimer's

Environments & Levels of Memory Care

Dementia is personal. So should be the memory care received.

Stage and Common Symptoms

Care Community

1

Mild Alzheimer's (early-stage)

- Problems coming up with words or names
- Challenges performing tasks in social/work settings
- Forgetting material that one has just read
- Losing or misplacing a valuable object
- Increasing trouble with planning or organizing

Independent Living

Assisted Living at Spring Valley Campus

2

Moderate Alzheimer's (middle-stage)

- Forgetting events or personal history details
- Unable to recall address or telephone number
- Confusion about where they are or what day it is
- Increased risk of wandering and becoming lost
- Personality or behavioral changes

Assisted Living at Spring Valley Campus

St. James at King's Gardens Campus

3

Severe Alzheimer's (late-stage)

- Need 24/7 assistance with daily activities and care
- Loss of awareness of experiences and surroundings
- Increased difficulty communicating
- Vulnerable to infections, especially pneumonia
- Difficulties walking, sitting, and swallowing

St. James at King's Gardens Campus

St. John's at King's Gardens Campus

Stages and Symptoms from Alzheimer's Association

Spring Valley Campus

Assisted Living
Early Stage-
Memory Care
Respite Care

Perry
Lutheran homes
Your Christian, Caring Community

King's Gardens Campus

Assisted Living
St. James & St. John
Memory Care
Long-Term Care

515-465-7500
501 12 St., Perry, IA | PerryLutheranHomes.org | 2323 Willis Ave., Perry, IA

515-465-5342